

Cook Caregiver OF THE MONTH

October Winner:

Sarah Wildey

Georgetown Manor

Cook Family Services Recognizes Sarah Wildey, of Georgetown Manor, for Her Exceptional Care

The Resident Care Manager at Georgetown Manor, Sarah Wildey is a young wife and mother who cherishes being a caregiver. She is recognized and appreciated by those in her care and respected by her fellow employees. Her willingness to go above and beyond that which is required endears her to all whom she encounters. Sarah works closely with patients and their doctors, coordinating medications and treatments. She also makes rounds with on-site physicians and shares the results of those visits with family members and other caregivers. Her daily focus and desire is to ensure that each resident receives proper daily care with dignity and respect.

The Cook Caregiver of the Month program honors Sarah Wildey and the many others like her. Without a doubt, she is a compassionate and dedicated caregiver, one deserving of appreciation and recognition.
