

Cook Caregiver OF THE MONTH

July's Cook Caregiver of the Month is...

Kathy Mast

It was almost 25 years ago that Kathy Mast applied for a job at what was then Georgetown Manor. Today she is Resident Care Manager of Cambridge Manor and realizes it is now more than a job, it is an ongoing exercise in giving and receiving. It has become a part of who she is today.

As a caregiver, Kathy strives to make sure residents receive quality care in a respectful manner. She follows physicians' directions by administering medical treatments and medications. Kathy oversees each individual patient's care to ensure that they receive the daily treatment they require. She also remains in contact with family members, keeping them well informed regarding the progress of their loved ones. Co-workers describe Kathy as caring, compassionate, and dedicated to her responsibilities.

Kathy has found that experiencing rare moments such as when a dementia patient smiles and makes eye contact have helped her to realize that caring for others is a gift that gives her life meaning and purpose. She is grateful for the opportunity to serve.
